Check in

Check in is from 4pm. We will send you the code and instructions for the keymaster lockbox by the front door, the day before you plan to arrive. There is a second key for the house located in the seagrass whale under the coffee table. All bedroom doors are fire doors and are to be kept off the latch - as found when you arrive at the house. If you lock yourself out of the bedroom, please find the master key in the lockbox opposite the basement bedroom, code 0000. Please ensure guests keep their keys safe as there is a £500 fee to get a replacement key.

Additional Notes:

If you can't find something or you are unhappy with anything please let us know during your stay so we can fix them. If you have any problems with water or electrics, please contact us immediately, do not try to fix anything yourself. We have a local tradesman on call to fix any issues.

Check out

Check out is at 11am. We politely request to please leave the house as clean and tidy as you found it. Please leave all used towels in the bath or shower. Bed linen to be left on beds. Please put all rubbish in the communal bins on St Micheals Rd (turn left outside the house). Please leave the keys where you found them and please leave the front door keys in the keymaster box. If possible, please drop us a message when you have vacated the house so we can let the cleaners know. Thank you and we hope you had a wonderful stay!

SIGHTSEEING BUSES

Jump on one of the sightseeing buses which pick up every hour behind the Hot Rocks restaurant on the seafront between 10am and 5pm. The whole tour takes 50 minutes but you can hop off at any of the 24 stops which include Boscombe, Southbourne, Tuckton Tea Gardens and Hengistbury Head.

Things to do

ZIP, PUTT & HACK

Pick from three cool, themed courses at Mr Mulligan's adventure golf, ride PierZip, the world's first pier-to-shore zip. Take a day trip to beautiful Guernsey or a Leap of Faith at RockReef. Hack horses in the New Forest, see a museum gifted to the future by an explorer at Russell-Cotes, or just shop the Victorian arcades.

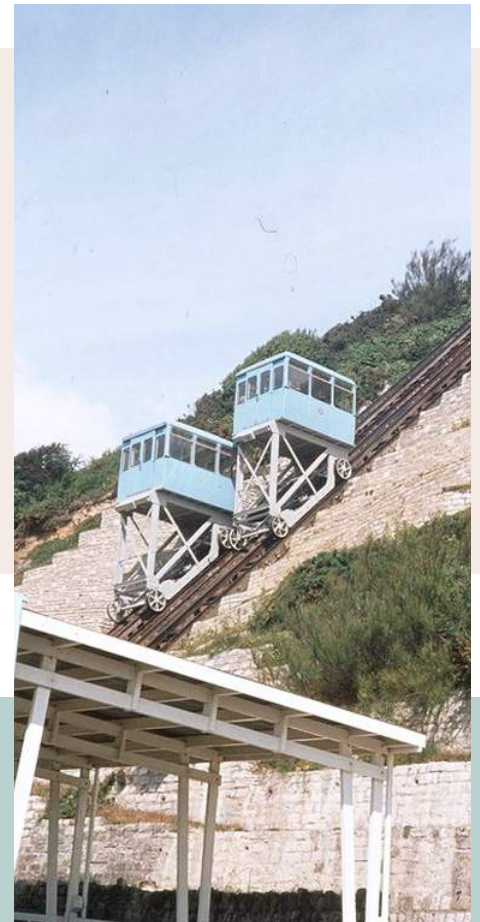

KIDS A'HOY!

Pop down to beach: it's just 300 metres away. Pick from three cool, themed courses at Mr Mulligan's adventure golf – explore a spaceship, try to survive an apocalypse or take on the alien leader Tee-Puk in an invasion. Or pop round the corner to Oceanarium, with over 150 species of fish, including otters, penguins and crocodiles.

Up for an adrenaline rush? PierZip is the world's first pier-to-shore zip, sending you down to the beach from the Zip Tower platform on a 250-metre wire. With two parallel lines, you can race your mates to the shore. Or keep the height thing going on Bournemouth Eye, with 500-foot balloon flights offering channel views.

Not sure what you want to do next? Take a hop-on, hop-off bus tour and make your mind up as you go. You've 18 stops bursting with surf, sand and seaside fun to choose from. Or how about a little tag at Laser Quest, a living computer game with no bruises or nasty mess?

Take on 28 indoor climbing challenges at RockReef on the pier and race your mates up the speed wall. Stay there for PierCave: move around the twists, turns, dips and bumps of three separate, colour-coded caving tunnels. Mum and dad can watch from the café. Or tackle HighLine, an indoor aerial obstacle course suspended 20 feet in the air.

FOR THE ADULTS

Grown-up kids will enjoy many of the activities aimed at their offspring. You're unlikely to turn your nose up at PierZip, whisking you on a 250-metre zip wire from pier to beach, or the Leap of Faith challenge at RockReef. Or hurl yourself recklessly into the crystal-clear sea on a coasteering challenge.

As a left-field option, how about a day trip to Guernsey? Catch the Condor from Poole and you could be there in as little as three hours, walking the Rousse headland, sunbathing at Saline Bay and refuelling in the Grande Rocques Bistro. Come back to learn stand-up paddleboarding at Surf Steps.

Ride horses and hack in the New Forest with Bagnum Equestrian. Stay there for archery sessions, crossbow shooting, axe throwing and bushcraft skills with Insight Activities. Come back to Hengistbury Head to take the train to Mudeford Sand spit, then refresh with a cup of tea and a slice of cake. Then it's on to the top of Warren Hill.

See four purpose-built galleries at Russell-Cotes, a house gifted to his wife by an explorer, filled with exotic objects from around the world, and then sealed and presented to the future as a museum. Or potter the national brands and quirky independent shops you'll find in Bournemouth's Victorian arcades.

FOOD AND DRINK

Book a bottomless brunch at Peachy Queen and finish off with a Pornstar Martini. Tuck into a steak sandwich or mixed grill, or share a tapas, at The Durley Inn. Try burgers, beer and American classics from the wonderfully named Sixty Million Postcards. Or wash down your pub grub from The Goat and Tricycle with a real ale or two.

Urban Garden's a colourful place serving everything from a quick coffee to cocktails to a three-course meal on the treetop terraces. Head to Flamingo for Cajun fried chicken, tacos, platitos and pancakes. Or how about traditional Chinese dishes with a modern approach at 1805?

Hen Pamper Package

Share the love with your hens and enjoy a local spa day or an in-house pamper morning before the fun starts!

Manis, blow dries and make-up ready for for a night on the town.

Other hen ideas

Glitter Artist | Masseur | Butler in the buff | Life drawing | Dance class | Cupcake making.
